RESIDENT PRODUCER LICENSE

This matter comes before the South Carolina Department of Insurance (the Department), upon application of David E. Belton, Esquire, Senior Associate General Counsel for the Department, requesting the revocation of Vermell Goodman (Producer) resident producer's license.

After careful review of the evidence presented the Department issues the following decision:

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Pursuant to S.C. Code §38-43-130(A)(C)(4): (A) "The director or his designee may place on probation, revoke, or suspend a producer's license after ten days' notice or refuse to issue or reissue a license when it appears that a producer has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, has violated this title or any regulation promulgated by the department, or has wilfully deceived or dealt unjustly with the citizens of this State." (C) "The words 'deceived or dealt unjustly with the citizens of this State' include, but are not limited to, action or inaction by the producer as follows:" (4) "improperly withholding, misappropriating, or converting any monies or properties received in the course of doing insurance business." Because Vermell Goodman failed to remit premiums to the Monumental Life Insurance Company in the amount of at least $431.86 dollars, the Department may place on probation, revoke, or suspend Vermell Goodman's producer license.

Pursuant to S.C. Code §38-43-240(A)(3): (A) "It is unlawful for a producer, collector, or other person to:" (3) "fail to turn over or satisfactorily account for all collections of the insurer when required." Because Vermell Goodman failed to remit premiums to the Monumental Life Insurance Company in the amount of at least $431.86 dollars, the Department now moves to revoke Vermell Goodman's producer license.

Pursuant to S.C. Code §38-43-107(A)(B): (A) "If an individual applies for an insurance producer's license he shall supply the department his business, mailing, and residence street address. The producer shall notify the department within thirty days of any change in legal name or in these addresses." (B): "Failure to inform the insurance director or his designee of a change in legal name or address within this period shall result in a penalty pursuant to Section 38-2-10." Thus, as a result of Vermell Goodman's failure to notify the Department of his current address, this caused the Department difficulty in corresponding with him.

THEREFORE, it is ordered that Vermell Goodman's South Carolina resident producer license shall be revoked thirty (30) days from the date of this order, and no license issued through the State of South Carolina Department of Insurance is to be issued to him, unless Vermell Goodman requests in writing within said thirty (30) day period a public hearing before the South Carolina Administrative Law Court.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that the National Association of Insurance Commissioners be immediately be notified of this order.

This South Carolina Department of Insurance administrative disciplinary order is a public record subject to the disclosure requirements of the State of South Carolina's freedom of Information Act, S.C. Code Ann. §§30-4-10, et seq. (1991 and Supp. 2006). Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit or to deprive any person of any private right of action under the law. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit, in any manner, the criminal jurisdiction of any law enforcement or judicial officer.
